Your image is the United brand
Your appearance is one of the first things noticed by customers and it leaves a lasting impression.
EWR-based Valeria Riccardo wearing the media and event uniform combination and EWR-based Leigh Serocki wearing the mens zip cardigan
You are seen as a representative of the United brand whenever you are in uniform. It is important to convey a professional and positive image each day you come to work.
ORD-based Vanessa Vazquez, DEN-based Deb Winchell and IAH-based Kiyoshi Printers.
You and our brand are professional, global, cosmopolitan, approachable, direct and efficient, thoughtful and modern.
These uniform regulations have been designed to provide you with information to learn more about your image as a United flight attendant. Your new uniform is the representation of the United brand in every interaction and experience with our customers. By adhering to these standards you ensure that your look is consistent for every customer.

Standards

- Wear only current uniform articles issued by United approved vendors.
- The fit of the uniform must reflect a professional appearance. Extreme styles are not permitted. Unapproved alterations, such as cuffs or tapering of the uniform pants, are not permitted.
- Uniform must be clean, pressed, neat and in good repair.
- Follow the specific care instructions included on the label inside each garment.
- Basic undergarments are required and must be an appropriate color.
- Personal hygiene must be maintained. Perfumes and colognes must be applied sparingly.
- The uniform or any identifiable part of the uniform may not be worn into an establishment where alcoholic beverage are sold or served. This rule does not preclude entering an establishment for meal service when other suitable places are not available.
- Tattoos must never be visible while in uniform.
- Chewing gum when in uniform is not permitted.
- International uniform appearance standards apply when the premium cabin service is United Global First℠ and/or United BusinessFirst®. Domestic standards apply when the premium cabin service is United First®, United Business® and on p.s.® flights. Refer to Cabin Classes in the FAIM or P&P manuals.
- Compliance with these standards is the responsibility of each flight attendant. Final compliance direction is determined by Inflight Services leadership.
Uniform schedule

Standards vary based on the four phases of flight. If you choose to wear your uniform en route to and from the airport, it must be worn in its entirety.

Phase 1
Full uniform, including blazer, when applicable.

Phase 2
Serving garment with name displayed.

Phase 3:
Serving garment on during service periods only.

Phase 4
Full uniform, including blazer, when applicable.

Uniform identifiers

United identification badge

Serving garments

The following are approved to be worn during Phases 2 and 3, refer to page 44 for specifics.

- Apron
- Vest
- International serving jacket

Outerwear

The following are the only approved outerwear garments, reference page 47 for specifics.

- Tie
- Shirt
- Pants
- Belt
- V-neck sweater
- All-season coat
- Wool coat
Serving garments

- A serving garment (apron or international serving jacket) is required to be worn in flight during all food and beverage offerings.
- The vest may be worn for service on domestic flights, but only in United Economy on international flights.
- When wearing the apron, serving jacket or vest the name bar must be attached on the left hand side.
- May not be worn during boarding, deplaning or during the safety demonstration.

Apron

- The solid black apron may be worn in all cabins on all domestic flights and international United Economy.
- Island print apron is only approved on direct flights to and from the Hawaiian Islands and/or Guam.
- The apron should not be worn while in United Global First or United BusinessFirst.
International serving jacket

- All S-CO international reserve flight attendants are required to have their serving jacket available when on duty.
- All S-UA flight attendants working an international flight or on stand-by/airport alert are required to bring their serving jackets with them. If assigned a United Global First or United BusinessFirst® working position the serving jacket must be worn.
- The United-issued serving jacket must be worn during international in flight services by designated United Global First and BusinessFirst aisle flight attendants.
- The apron and blazer are not alternatives to the serving jacket, however if a flight attendant is redirected from United Economy to United Global First or United BusinessFirst aisle position and does not have a serving jacket, he/she must wear a blazer.
- The ISM or Purser may choose to wear the serving apron rather than the serving jacket when working an assigned position in United Economy.
Accessories

Pins

- Three (3) total United approved pins may be worn with the uniform (e.g., It's Our Job, service, milestone or promotional) on the right side of the lapel of the blazer or on the right side of the outermost garment (similar to wings).

- It's Our Job pins are part of the uniform and must be worn upright on the right side of the lapel of the blazer or on the right side of the outermost garment (similar to wings).

- The official union pin may only be worn on the upper left side of the outermost garment (similar to wings).

Watches

- One conservative business-style watch is required.

- Watch bands may be black, metal or a solid color that complements the uniform.
Eyeglasses

- Must complement the uniform and be professional in style and color.

Contact lenses

- Lens color must be the same for both eyes.
- Lenses are to be natural in color and appearance.

Sunglasses

- May only be worn outdoors.

Weather gear

- Only the all-season coat or wool coat may be worn.
- Solid black gloves and hats may be worn with the uniform coat or long sleeve blazer.
- Approved outerwear (e.g. overcoat, scarf and gloves) may be worn outdoors or when stationed at a boarding door until door closure.
- Only the United-issued winter scarf may be worn with the wool or all-season coat.
- Plain black winter boots may be worn until check-in, to or from a layover and after the completion of the trip during inclement weather.
- A solid black umbrella may be carried.

Luggage

- United-approved luggage includes a tote, roller aboard and/or garment bag that are solid black in color.
- Luggage dimensions must be within 48 linear inches (i.e. the linear total is calculated by adding the bag height, length and width).
- Non United-approved items are not permitted (e.g., knapsacks, koozies, or backpacks).
- Stickers on the outside of luggage items are not permitted.
- Luggage wheels must be plain black. Wheels with flashing lights are not permitted.
- One conservative luggage tag is permitted.
- Lunch bags must be plain black.
- Refer to the Flight Attendant Operations Manual (FAOM) for guidelines on baggage allowance.
Approved uniform combinations for media and events

When a flight attendant is selected for a photo or publicity event, he or she must ensure that the uniform is in good condition and all standards and guidelines are met.

- Blazer with wings attached.
- White long sleeved uniform shirt/blouse.
- Skirt with sheer black hosiery (only for females).
- Pants with United issued belt and solid black dress socks (only for males).
- Solid black business shoe.
- Destination neckwear (scarf for females, tie for males).
Discarding uniform items

- Uniform items must be destroyed if no longer wearable.
- Cut out any identifying marks such as logo on shirt or blouse, stripes on jackets sleeves and buttons.
- Remember that for security reasons, any uniform item (current or expired):
  - Cannot be sold on the internet.
  - Cannot be sold or distributed to any person or organization without United approval.
